Is there ever a time to give up?

Sometimes it is wise to quit, particularly when you are doing something wrong or you realize that your actions are futile or are hurting someone. But when God has called us to a task and we give up, we not only miss the great blessings of reaching our goal, but we might also incur discipline for not trusting God to help us get there. Just because God is in something doesn't make it easy. In fact, the harder the road, the stronger we become. If you know God is leading you and opening doors in a certain direction, don't give up just because the going gets tough. If anything, that should tell you that you are headed in the right direction. Keep moving forward boldly and with faith.

Let us run with endurance the race that God has set before us.

~Hebrews 12:1

ARKANSAS

BY GEORGIA W.

When it comes to Arkansas there is no debate,
 That this is one of the better states,
 From its winding rivers flowing through the hills,
 to its old, ancient, dusty sawmills.
 There are many people in Arkansas:
 Some better, some worse,
 But they all have a common goal:
 That is to stay out of the back of a hearse.
 From the Razorback Stadium, with its cotton
 candy stands,
 To the railroad worker with his dirty, withered hands.
 Bill Clinton came from this great state,
 what you think about that I'll leave for you to debate.
 People laugh because we are all "rednecks" and
 "hillbillies",
 But oh come on! Don't be so absurd and silly!
 I am not bashing all the other states at all:
 I am just stating that I am in awe that this is a place where so much goes wrong,
 but still this is the place for which my spirit longs.
